Rationale for Revision

By 1990, Nigeria had experienced significant economic shifts, including increased foreign investment, a burgeoning private sector, and a shift towards privatization. The old legislation was deemed insufficient to address contemporary corporate issues, leading to the enactment of CAMA 1990, which introduced new provisions on company registration, management, compliance, and corporate governance.

- Board of Directors: Responsible for strategic management, fiduciary duties, and compliance.
- Shareholders: Protected through voting rights and dividend entitlements.
- Meetings and Resolutions: Procedures for convening general meetings, passing resolutions, and recording decisions.
- Fiduciary Duties: Directors are bound to act honestly and in the best interests of the company.

The Act also addresses issues related to conflicts of interest, disclosure requirements, and the appointment and removal of directors.

Transparency is reinforced through provisions requiring:

- Annual Financial Statements: Prepared in accordance with applicable accounting standards.
- Auditor Appointments: Appointment of independent auditors to verify financial health.
- Filing with the Corporate Affairs Commission (CAC): Submission of annual returns and financial reports to ensure statutory compliance.
